Synopsis

The Vagina Monologues is a testimonial of women's experiences on their journey through sexual discovery. These women share their most intimate desires and fears in a backdrop of humor, heartbreak and sometimes violence. Monologues like "If your vagina could talk," "Because he liked to look at it," and "My short skirt," among others, have touched the lives of many women as they embrace their sexuality - becoming an international feminist phenomenon since 1998.

Members of the Press are welcomed to attend our performances. For interviews with the Cast and the Organizing Committee, please contact Amanda Unruh, Media Relations.

About Us:

V-Day McGill is a group of McGill students dedicated to seeing an end to gender-based violence and is proud to be part of the V-Day College Campaign: a catalyst that promotes creative events to increase awareness, raise money and revitalize the spirit of existing anti-violence organizations, through benefit productions of Eve Ensler's "The Vagina Monologues." V-Day McGill joins over 2000 college initiatives worldwide to generate broader attention for the fight to stop violence against women and girls but also expands its mission to include other targeted groups of gender-based violence.

The 'V' in V-Day stands for Victory, Valentine and Vagina.
